

D'où viens-tu?

You can now talk about your hobbies including sports, TV, music and cinema. You also learnt how to describe what you do using New Technologies.

1. Talking about your daily routine

2. Describing your daily life using modal verbs

5. Shopping for food at the market

4. Talking about what you don't eat

3. Talking about what you eat and drink for different meals

6. Talking about healthy and unhealthy food

7. Talking about food you eat for different festivals

10. Describing festivals and traditions

9. Shopping for clothes

8. Talking about healthy living

11. Describing family celebrations

12. Project work: Les Choristes

Prochaine Étape ...
Local Area!

Why am I learning this?

There are over 300 million French speakers in the whole world! By studying this module I will be able to discover and discuss traditions, festivals and culture in France and francophone countries. I will develop perspective, understanding and I will connect with people from different culture. This is important because culture is a strong part of people's lives. It influences their views, humour, hopes and fears.